BUILD RECURRING REVENUE WITH YOUR OWN SPA CARE BRAND

INTRODUCING A MORE NATURAL WAY TO CARE FOR SPA WATER

AquaSure simplifies hot tub water care – helping customers enjoy clearer water, softer skin, and reduced chemical dependency.

WHY YOUR CUSTOMERS WILL LOVE AQUASURE

Softer, Silkier Water
Noticeably smoother water for a more comfortable soak.

Skin & Eye Friendly
Less irritation compared to chemical-heavy systems.

Reduced Chemical Use
Helps lower sanitiser levels by up to 75%.

Protects Spa Components
Helps reduce scale build-up and component wear.

Clearer Water, Less Effort
Keeps water balanced and easier to maintain.

Environmentally Considered
Free from harsh additives.

WHY YOU'LL LOVE SELLING IT

- High-margin consumable product
- Subscription-based recurring revenue
- Reduced water-care complaints
- Increased customer retention
- Branded ecosystem builds loyalty

AquaSure simplifies spa ownership – delivering clearer water, softer skin, and lower chemical dependency.

PRIVATE LABELLING & FULFILMENT

Build Your Own Spa Care Brand — Without the Infrastructure

In today's competitive spa and wellness market, differentiation is essential. AquaSure's private labelling and fulfilment solution allows you to launch your own branded spa care product — without the complexity of manufacturing, warehousing, logistics, or technology development.

We provide the complete infrastructure behind the scenes, while your customers experience a fully branded product under your name.

HOW IT WORKS

1 BRAND IT

We fully private label the packaging, website, subscription portal, and mobile app with your unique branding. From box design to digital presence, your customers see only your logo.

2 SELL IT

You sell in-store and online using your dedicated branded platform. Each box includes a unique QR code linking directly to your personalised subscription page for seamless activation.

3 WE FULFIL IT

All subscription orders are professionally packed and dispatched directly from our warehouse to your customers. Billing, fulfilment, and logistics are managed on your behalf.

WHAT THIS MEANS FOR YOUR BUSINESS

- No manufacturing or sourcing required
- No warehousing or fulfilment overhead
- No technical build or development costs
- Low minimum order commitment
- Fully managed subscription infrastructure
- Ongoing recurring revenue opportunity

Your Brand. Our Infrastructure. Shared Success.

WEBSITE & MOBILE APP

A Fully Branded Digital Ecosystem — Ready to Deploy

AquaSure provides a complete, private-labelled digital platform that allows you to offer your customers a seamless online subscription experience under your own brand. Without the cost, complexity, or time investment of building a system yourself, you gain a professionally designed website and mobile app that manage subscriptions, customer engagement, and ongoing communication.

Your customers interact with your brand — while we manage the infrastructure behind the scenes.

WHAT YOU RECEIVE

- A fully private-labelled website customised to your brand identity
- A branded mobile app for iOS and Android
- Dedicated subscription management portal
- Secure payment processing and automated renewals
- Customer order tracking and account management

DESIGNED TO IMPROVE RETENTION & REDUCE ADMIN

Automated recurring billing	Simple subscription upgrades and adjustments	Integrated educational video content	Built-in blog and spa care guidance	AI-powered chatbot for instant customer support

SEAMLESS INTEGRATION

- Bi-directional system sync between website and app
- Real-time order and subscription updates
- Secure data handling and protected API environment

With AquaSure, you provide a premium digital experience that strengthens customer loyalty, increases lifetime value, and positions your business as a modern spa care provider — without expanding your operational workload.

All the Technology — None of the Complexity.

OUR FINANCIAL MODEL

Built for Growth. Structured for Recurring Revenue.

AquaSure's financial model is designed to deliver immediate retail margin while creating long-term recurring income through subscription sales. With a low entry commitment and no infrastructure investment required, you can introduce a high-margin consumable product without increasing operational overhead.

The model supports both upfront retail profit and ongoing commission-based earnings — turning each customer into a long-term revenue asset.

LOW-RISK ENTRY

- Low minimum order commitment
- No manufacturing or warehousing costs
- No technology development investment
- Fully managed fulfilment and subscription infrastructure

Allowing you to launch confidently without heavy capital exposure.

IMMEDIATE MARGIN OPPORTUNITY

- Competitive wholesale pricing
- Strong retail profit margins
- Complimentary first box to support sign-up
- In-store and QR-based subscription activation

Generating profit from the first sale.

RECURRING REVENUE STREAM

- Ongoing commission on every active subscription
- Predictable monthly income growth
- Increased customer lifetime value
- Strengthened brand loyalty through repeat engagement

Every subscription sold becomes a recurring revenue opportunity for your business.

Smarter Margins. Sustainable Growth.
